Attention: Chair Barry Walden, Mr Kieran Smith CEO, Mr Massimo Zaini COO

Dear Gunawuna Jungai Limited and the Doomadgee community,

Welcome to the Justice Reinvestment Network Australia

We are pleased to welcome Gunawuna Jungai Limited as a Justice Reinvestment Network Australia Limited (JRNA) member. By joining us, you are a crucial part of continuing to build a solid national Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander voice from the grassroots communities committed to driving change through justice reinvestment.

As a member, you'll have access to our network's support, resources, knowledge exchange and collaborative opportunities to advocate for systemic change. We also look forward to the many future opportunities for communities doing JR across the country to share with, and learn from your community and your work.

Contact Points for Support and Information

Please contact us if you have any questions about your membership or JRNA's activities. Here are some key contact points:

- Membership and Board Inquiries: Aysha Kerr (Ngugi woman from Quandamooka Country), Co-chair and Company Secretary and Devon Cuimara (Whadjuk Yued Noongar, Yamatji and Anangu man living on Nyiyarparli and Martu land), Co-Chair:

- Support and Shared Learning Hub: connect@justicereinvestment.net.au

We would welcome an opportunity to meet 1:1 to speak about ways we could support you and your community. Please get in touch if you'd like to arrange a time to meet online.

We also enclose JRNA Membership badges that you are welcome to use on your website.

Once again, welcome to JRNA. We are honoured to have you with us as we stand together to drive real change and strengthen our communities through justice reinvestment. This will create healing, restoration, well-being, and collective strength as true justice our way. This is, and always will be, a grassroots initiative led by the grassroots people standing in our power, guided by our Ancestors and our Elders.

Warm regards,
